

Exercise

Genogram

It is likely by now that your social worker has already completed a Genogram with you. A Genogram is essentially your family tree, but with added detail about relationships that you thought about with your social worker.

If your social worker has already completed a Genogram with you, put a copy of it on this page. If not, ask your social worker to help you use the space below to draw one.

Family Genogram